KSCO Santa Cruz 1080 AM | 104.1 FM | ksco.com | free KSCO app Good evening, night owls and truth seekers of the infinite. You're locked into The Night Hawk Resurrected, broadcasting live from the bleeding edge of reality with your hosts Kelly Powers and Ginni. This episode we go full quantum. For the entire two hours we're joined by the legendary Quantum Doug Matzke – PhD-level quantum computing pioneer, holder of over 20 patents in hyper-dimensional chip design, and author of the mind-expanding book Deep Reality. Doug has spent decades demonstrating that the universe itself behaves like one giant quantum computer... and that human consciousness may be its native operating system. Expect a no-holds-barred dive into: - The hidden Source Science that ties quantum entanglement to consciousness - Why near-death experiences, precognition, and psychic phenomena might be features, not bugs, of the cosmic code - Hyper-dimensional bit-physics and how reality is built on information, not matter - What quantum machine learning reveals about the true architecture of existence Strap in, put on your quantum goggles, and get ready to watch your old model of reality collapse in real time. Quantum Doug Matzke – live – unfiltered – right now – only on The Night Hawk Resurrected. This is where the mysteries of the universe come to get decoded.
